

4th Annual First Responders Appreciation Night

Each and every day, men and women in our area put their lives before others in the line of duty. More than 300 first responders and members of our community are expected to attend this event. This opportunity is a way to show our first responders that our community appreciates their hard work and sacrifice they provide to keep our community safe. A meal will be provided at no charge to the first responders and their families. Emergency vehicles will be on display, informational booths, music, bounce houses, fireworks, carnival games and much more! This is a community wide event
